

Please keep the no call list available. I find it very annoying to be bothered by unnecessary calls from companies. If I want their assistance or want to donate to some charity. I will do it on my own. There is not any need for begging by their companies. The companies can use some other form of marketing.

Thank you for your time.